

Criminal Justice, Immigration, and Civil Rights Amidst Trump's ICE Crackdown

Wednesday, October 8, 2025 | 5:30 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. EDT

Rutgers Law School | Baker Trial Courtroom

Center for Law and Justice | 123 Washington Street | Newark, NJ 07102

This program will cover "front-page" issues confronting criminal, immigration, and civil rights lawyers arising from the current administration's immigration initiatives. We will cover common immigration issues impacting criminal defendants, including detention, plea and sentencing issues; constitutional questions arising from the targeting, arrest and detention of non-citizen clients; the impact of criminal charges on prior immigration relief (such as asylum or convention against torture); and courthouse arrests and deportations, among others.

CLE INFORMATION

Rutgers Law School is an approved New Jersey (418) and Pennsylvania (824) continuing legal education provider. In addition, this program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction policy. If you are seeking CLE credit, you must attend, complete an attendance form and evaluation, and have paid the applicable CLE fee.

NJ CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 1.6 hours of total CLE credit.

NY CLE Information: This transitional and non-transitional continuing legal education program qualifies for a maximum of 1.5 credit hours, of which 1.5 credit hours can be applied toward the Areas of Professional Practice requirement. New York attorneys must view the entire program to receive CLE credit (no partial credit allowed).

PA CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board for 1.0 hours of substantive law, practice, and procedure CLE credit.

Other Jurisdictions: Rutgers Law School does not seek direct accreditation of live programs or webinars in other states. However, some states allow attorneys to earn credit through reciprocity or self-submission. Attorneys must research CLE rules and request accreditation from their respective state/jurisdiction. Rutgers Law School will provide proof of attendance.

Attendance Reporting: Attendees must sign in upon arrival and receive an attendance form and evaluation. Upon departure, they will certify their attendance and hand in the completed form.

Rutgers Law School will provide certificates of attendance for New Jersey and New York attorneys at the conclusion of the program and submit attendance for Pennsylvania attorneys within 30 days of the program, if the CLE requirements have been met.

CLE Materials: Thorough, high-quality, and carefully written materials shall be distributed to all attendees electronically before or at the program.

Format: Faculty in room with participants.

Accessibility: We strive to make our programs accessible to all registrants. Contact us should you have an accessibility need. If you encounter any issues while attending our events, please contact us at ipe@law.rutgers.edu or at 973-353-5928 to request assistance.

Cancellation Policy: Cancellation notices must be received by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu at least 24 hours before the program to qualify for a refund, less a $5 administrative fee, or a credit toward another program within a year. There are no refunds after this time except for extraordinary circumstances as determined by the director or program coordinators. You may opt to receive credit for the full amount paid and apply it toward another program within a year of the canceled program date. Substitutions are accepted.

Financial Hardship Policy: We are strongly committed to professional development and seek to make our programs affordable to attorneys. If possible, we will provide reduced tuition, tuition waiver or scholarship to attorneys who demonstrate financial hardship. Requests should be made prior to the program date by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu.
