

Wrongful Convictions: Criminalized Survivors of Domestic Violence

Wednesday, November 4, 2026 | 12:30 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. EDT

Rutgers Law School | Lower Level | Room 90 AND ZOOM webinar

Center for Law and Justice | 123 Washington Street | Newark, NJ 07102

Join us for a conversation with a criminalized survivor of domestic violence and her legal team. The panel will explore the systemic failures that criminalize young victims of domestic violence, the barriers they face when seeking to overturn wrongful convictions, and the collective efforts involved in pursuing justice.

CLE INFORMATION

Rutgers Law School is an approved New Jersey (418) and Pennsylvania (824) continuing legal education provider. In addition, this program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction policy. If you are seeking CLE credit, you must attend, complete an attendance form and evaluation, and have paid the applicable CLE fee.

NJ CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 1.6 hours of total CLE credit. Of these, 0.6 qualify as hours of total credit for ethics, professionalism, and professional responsibility, of which 0.6 qualify as hours of credit for diversity, inclusion, and elimination of bias.

NY CLE Information: This non-transitional continuing legal education program qualifies for a maximum of 1.5 credit hours, of which 1.0 credit hours can be applied toward the Areas of Professional Practice requirement, and 0.5 credit hours can be applied toward the Diversity, Inclusion, and Elimination of Bias requirement. New York attorneys must view the entire program to receive CLE credit.

PA CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board for 0.5 hours of substantive law, practice and procedure CLE credit and 0.5 hours of ethics, professionalism or substance abuse CLE credit.

Other Jurisdictions: Rutgers Law School does not seek direct accreditation of live programs or webinars in other states. However, some states allow attorneys to earn credit through reciprocity or self-submission. Attorneys must research CLE rules and request accreditation from their respective state/jurisdiction. Rutgers Law School will provide proof of attendance.

Format: Faculty in room with participant and Zoom meeting, fully interactive, verifiable, live, simultaneous, synchronous transmission. Questions are allowed during the program. Qualifies as live instruction.

Degree of Difficulty: All levels.

Attendance Reporting: Zoom attendees must keep track of CLE codes shared at random intervals, which are needed to complete the attendance and evaluation form provided at the end of the program or upon request to ipe@law.rutgers.edu. Attendees must submit the form for CLE credit.

In-person attendees must sign in upon arrival and take an attendance form and evaluation. Upon departure, they must certify their attendance and check out by returning the completed form.

Rutgers Law School will email certificates of attendance for New Jersey and New York attorneys and submit attendance for Pennsylvania attorneys within 30 days of the program, if the CLE requirements have been met.

CLE Materials: Thorough, high-quality, and carefully written materials shall be distributed to all attendees electronically before or at the program.

Accessibility: We strive to make our programs accessible to all registrants. Contact us should you have an accessibility need. If you encounter any issues while attending our events, please contact us at ipe@law.rutgers.edu or at 973-353-5928 to request assistance.

Cancellation Policy: Cancellation notices must be received by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu at least 24 hours before the program to qualify for a refund, less a $10 administrative fee, or a credit toward another program within a year. There are no refunds after this time except for extraordinary circumstances as determined by the director or program coordinators. You may opt to receive credit for the full amount paid and apply it toward another program within a year of the canceled program date. Substitutions are accepted.

Financial Hardship Policy: We are strongly committed to professional development and seek to make our programs affordable to attorneys. If possible, we will provide reduced tuition, tuition waiver or scholarship to attorneys who demonstrate financial hardship. Requests should be made prior to the program date by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu.
